This appropriation was to be placed in the hands of a wise and petitiotic executive to make proper preparations to maintain the math and hence, nothing more. "It is not a war appropriation," said he emphatically. "I say that in my judgment, measuring my words, that it is a place measure. (Great applause.) The government of the United States would not, if it could, trench upon the rights of any nation on earth." (Renewed applause.)

Mr. Sayres of Texas, the ranking member of the minority, followed Mr. Cannon. His first statement, to the offernment has appropriation had met with the hearity and magniness bedorsement of the appropriation committee, without regard to party, attassed the House to enthusiasm.
